Professional misconduct includes: violation of ethical standards of the profession, wrongful conduct with impact on professional credibility, false

6. PROCEDURE, CHECKING ELIGIBILITY, DOCUMENTS

The EUGLOH team will regularly check the submitted photos and reach out to participants to acquire personal data to validate the eligibility of the contestants. In case the participants – for any reason - fail to present their data by the time of the jury vote, their works will not be eligible for jury voting. Any photos submitted after the participation deadline will not be eligible for the jury voting.

Contestants should note that they might be asked at a later stage for further documents (for legal entity validation, bank account validation, ethics review, declaration of honour on exclusion grounds, etc).

7. OTHER CONDITIONS

- Participation in our photo competition voluntary and at your own responsibility.
- By submitting a photo you assure that you are the owner of the photo and that the photo does not violate any rights of third parties.
- Only those can win the competition who are students of one of the 9 EUGLOH member Universities at the time of the photo submission.
- In case of winning, you accept our privacy policy regarding the conduct of the photo competition and the administration of your submitted photo.
- In the case of winning the contest, you grant EUGLOH permission - stating your name if you so desire - to publish the photo and its description free of charge, to reproduce it and to use and distribute it for EUGLOH's public relations work for an unlimited period of time. This permission also applies to the use of the material in exhibitions, printed works, electronic media, film and on the internet.
- By submitting the material, you assure that you have received a declaration of consent from clearly recognizable persons both for the recording as such and for the use of the material for participation in the EUGLOH photo competition.
- If it turns out that
 - a) you are not the copyright holder of the photo,
 - b) rights of third parties are violated or
 - c) a clearly recognizable person has not given a corresponding declaration of consent, EUGLOH is not responsible to third parties, but you as the photo submitter. EUGLOH is entitled to reclaim the award or prize from the winners if it turns out afterwards that one of the cases (a), b), c)) mentioned above is given.

7.1 Payment arrangements

Travelling and accommodation costs will be covered through the EUGLOH WP5 campus life budget of the winners' university.

7.2 Publicity — Promoting the Results of the Contest — Visibility of EU funding

EUGLOH may use, for its communication and publicising activities, information relating to the action, documents notably summaries for publication as well as any other material, such as pictures or audio-visual material that it receives from the participants (including in electronic form).

EUGLOH will publish the name of the winner(s), their university of origin, and their reward— unless they have requested to waive this publication (because disclosure risks threatening its security and safety or harm its commercial interest).

7.3 Processing of personal data

7.3.1 Processing of personal data by EUGLOH

Any personal data will be processed by EUGLOH in respect to the GDPR and data processing.

All participants consent that EUGLOH publishes the following information:

- name
- University of origin
- contest reward
- photo submitted to the competition

in whatever form and medium.

7.3.2 Processing of personal data by the participants

The participants must process personal data in compliance with applicable EU and national law on data protection (including authorisations or notification requirements, if any).

7.4 Ethics

The activities must be carried out in compliance with:

- (a) ethical principles and
- (b) applicable international, EU and national law.

7.5 Conflict of interests

The participants must take all measures to prevent any situation where the impartial and objective award of the prize is compromised for reasons involving economic interest, political or national affinity, family or emotional ties or any other shared interest ('conflict of interests').

They must inform EUGLOH without delay of any situation constituting or likely to lead to a conflict of interests and immediately take all the necessary steps to rectify this situation.

7.6 Liability for damages

EUGLOH or the member universities cannot be held liable for any damage caused to the participants or to third parties as a consequence of the reward, including for gross negligence.

EUGLOH or the member universities cannot be held liable for any damage caused by any of the participants in the context of the contest reward.

7.7 Checks, audits and investigation

EUGLOH photo contest prizes and-or rewards are being funded by the European Commission, the Agency or the Commission, the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) and the European Court of Auditors may carry out checks, audits and investigations in relation to the prize.

7.8 Withdrawal of the prize — Recovery of undue amounts

EUGLOH may withdraw the prize after its award and recover all payments made, if it finds out that:

- (a) false information, fraud or corruption was used to obtain it
- (b) a winner was not eligible or should have been excluded
- (c) a winner is in serious breach of its obligations under these Rules of Contest.

7.9 Administrative sanctions

If a participant has committed irregularities or fraud or has made false declarations, the European Commission may also:

- (d) exclude the participant from all future contracts, grants and contests financed from the EU or Euratom budget for a maximum of five years (or 10 years in case of repetition)

and/or

7.10 Cancellation of the contest

EUGLOH may cancel the contest or decide not to award the prize — without any obligation to compensate participants —, if:

- (e) no applications are received
- (f) the winner is not eligible or must be excluded or
- (g) the objective of the contest has already been achieved.

7.11 Complaints

Complaints against decisions negatively affecting the rights of a participant or winner can be brought before the General Court — or, on appeal, the Court of Justice of the European Union — under Article 263 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (TFEU).
