ABOUT THE FACULTY

TIMELESS TRADITION - PROSPEROUS PRESENT - FABULOUS FUTURE

The great Hungarian poet, Babits Mihály once said: There is no future without a past, and the richer your past is, the more thread you can cling with to the future. The Juhász Gyula Faculty of Education at the University of Szeged - and its legal predecessors - is as old as teacher training in Hungary dating back to 1873. If you want to experience a proud traditional academic environment with a rich past, choose us.

Come to us also if you wish to be part of a modern, open and innovative community, where the professors are student-centered, use practice-oriented innovative pedagogy and the academic courses offer competitive, research-based knowledge and skills. Within the University of Szeged only our Faculty offers teacher and educator training programmes in Hungarian for kindergarten, lower-primary school, special needs education, visual art, music, physical education, national minority languages, environmental sciences, and technology. In addition, only we have Bachelor and Master courses in visual arts, sports science, health promotion - Mental Health Promotion, Social Pedagogy, Adult Education, National Minority Languages, Minority Politics, Human Resource Counselling in Hungarian and in English. Now the programme titled Instructor of English as a Foreign Language is available in English. Since we are part of the Erasmus+ and the International Indonesian Mobility Awards (IISMA) there are one-semester-long educational programmes available for international students.

There is a vivid student life with scientific as well as fun programmes. Do you want to know who the 'Starry-Eyed Shepherd' of the Faculty is? Then come to see for yourself! Bring your Sunday best for the student balls and don't forget your joggings at home for the various sport events that are waiting for you. Our great students and professors are eager to welcome you in a real multicultural environment, to shape the future together. Don't miss your opportunity!
