

Prof. Dr. György Lázár, PhD, DSc director

Szeged, 31. July 2023.
XLIX-...../2023

6th year curriculum 2023/2024.

1. Evaluation of surgical patients, anamnesis
2. Physical examination (inspection, palpation, percussion, auscultation)
3. Informing the patient before surgical interventions
4. Indication of routine laboratory tests, evaluation of findings
5. Indication of radiology examinations (abdominal and chest X-ray, CT, MRI, ultrasound)
6. Indication of various endoscopic examinations
7. Wound management
8. Treatment and bandage of sterile and infected wounds
9. Examination of patients in out-patient unit, especially patients with symptoms of acute abdomen
10. Preparation and giving of i. m. and i. v. injections (under supervision)
11. Theory and praxis of intravenous infusion therapy (indications, infusion solutions, performing)
12. Central venous catheterization
13. Bladder catheterization
14. Removal of abdominal and thoracic drains
15. Removal of sutures
16. Asepsis and antisepsis in the practice
17. Disinfection of the hand
18. General rules in the operating room
19. Surgical tools and suture materials, their usage on a basic level
20. Participation in surgeries as second assistant
21. Participation in admission on-duty service (monitoring and treating acute patients under supervision)
22. Basic issues of antibiotic prophylaxis
23. Thrombosis prophylaxis
24. Postoperative observation and care, analgesia

On behalf of the director of the Department

Prof. András Petri
Deputy director