

Final exam questions for public health and forensic medicine, when the mathematical average is not definite

- 1. Social importance of alcohol consumption and acute alcohol influence
- 2. The importance of alcohol dependency (alcoholism) in Hungary
- 3. Drug consumption and drug dependency –as a public health problem
- 4. Sudden and unexpected death as a public health problem
- 5. Suicide as a public health problem
- 6. Clinical and forensic medical importance of iatrogenic infections, preventive measures
- 7. Workplace accidents and work related diseases as a public health issue
- 8. Poisoning by pharmaceutical products in general
- 9. Food related poisoning and diseases as a public health issue
- 10. Poisoning by pesticides
- 11. Accidents at home and during transportation - epidemiology
- 12. Mortality – definition, methods of data collection
- 13. Payment of the health care – methods and resources