

Topic list
Forensic Medicine 2015

Topics I.

1. Changes after death
2. Battered child syndrome
3. Infanticide and artificial abortion
4. The medico-legal autopsy (medico-legal cases, professional autopsy regulations, special elements comparing to the clinical autopsy)
5. Blunt force trauma of the chest and the abdomen
6. Road traffic injuries (pedestrian)
7. Road traffic injuries (car drivers, occupants)
8. Railway accident injuries, injuries of cyclists and motor cyclist
9. Absorption and elimination of alcohol
10. Abuse and intoxication of medical drugs (barbiturates, diazepam, other hypnotics)
11. Abuse and intoxication of illicit drugs (amphetamines, cocaine, cannabis, LSD, opioids)
12. Determination of age, sex and stature of skeleton remains
13. Causes of sudden death in adults
14. Workability, occupational health
15. Medical responsibility and malpractice issues
16. Accident in general

Topics II.

1. The death certificate
2. Sexual offences (adult victims)
3. Child sexual abuse (CSA)
4. Heat and cold injuries
5. Gunshot wounds
6. Paternity testing by DNA profiling
7. Identification in criminal cases by DNA profiling
8. The physiological effect of alcohol; drunk driving
9. Carbon monoxide poisoning
10. Identification of living persons and early postmortem bodies
11. Sudden death in childhood and young ages
12. Sudden infant death syndrome
13. Social insurance systems
14. Medical duties in relation to detention
15. Permanent impairment, tasks of occupational health professionals
16. Medical care of refugees

Supplementary topics for public health – forensic medicine final exam

1. Acute and chronic poisoning by agricultural chemicals
2. Mortality analysis and its public health importance
3. Health care system and its financing of your homeland country
4. Suicide and alcohol consumption in your homeland country (medicinal, cultural and religious aspects)